BY THE END OF YOUR FIRST YEAR AT BAC, YOU SHOULD:

- Take TWO-THREE core skill courses, including Writing 101
- Take TWO-THREE perspective courses, excluding Religion

Rank your experience in these courses using the scale provided below.

Type of Course (Skill or Perspective)	Name of Course	Level of Success	Level of Ease	Level of Interest

Ranking	Level of Success	Level of Ease	Level of Interest
1	I did not perform well in this area of study.	This area of study is very difficult for me.	I will never take another course in this area of study.
2	I performed well WITH outside support OR I performed okay WITHOUT outside support.	This area of study is challenging for me.	I would consider taking another course in this area of study.
3	I performed well WITHOUT outside support.	This area of study is somewhat easy for me.	I want to learn more about this area of study and want to take another course in this discipline.
4	I excelled in this area of study.	This area of study is VERY easy for me.	I am considering majoring in this area of study.

- Make a plan for completing the Language requirement: _____
- Complete at least 27 credits
  - o Advancement to sophomore status requires completion of 31 credits.
  - o Students should take 10-11 credits per term to graduate in four years with the required minimum of 124 credits.

Not sure which major to choose? Consider the following tips:
- Gather information on the majors that interest you via the website, faculty, or your advisor
- Refer to the Course Evaluation you completed. Which major best aligns with the courses in which you were the most interested and the most successful?
- Consider combining your interests through the Interdisciplinary Program
- Consider adding a minor in another area you are interested in
