Bryn Athyn College

Faculty Recommendation for Student Ambassadors

Student Ambassador Position Description

Student Ambassadors are responsible for leading campus tours, working at admissions events, and calling prospective students on behalf of the Admissions Office. They are expected to accurately and enthusiastically represent the student body at Bryn Athyn College. As a whole, student ambassadors will ideally represent a diverse group of students from various majors, ethnicities, and campus activities. Strong candidates will be responsible, able to work independently, and knowledgeable about the culture at Bryn Athyn College.
