POLICY: REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION OF INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

Responsible Officer: Dean of Students

I. PURPOSE

Bryn Athyn College is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities in order to provide to them equal educational and employment access and opportunity, including an equal opportunity to compete in the hiring process, to perform adequately during the course of their education or employment, and to participate fully in all programs and activities.

II. POLICY

Bryn Athyn College provides reasonable accommodations to students, who document their disability with the Office of Disability Resources.

III. ELIGIBILITY

Qualified individuals with disabilities who are students may be eligible for reasonable accommodations.

Campus guests who have a disability and need an accommodation should contact the Office of Disability Resources.

IV. DEFINITIONS

As defined by the Americans with Disabilities (ADA) Act of 1990 (amended in 2008) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, a qualified person with a disability is a person who meets the essential eligibility requirements of the academic program or service, with or without a reasonable accommodation. Disability is defined by the ADA as "a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the major life activities, a record of such impairment or being regarded as having such an impairment."

The Office of Disability resources is happy to work with students with documented disabilities to identify appropriate academic accommodations. Reasonable accommodations refer to modifications that provide students with disabilities equal access to college programs and activities. An accommodation is not considered reasonable if it fundamentally alters the essential elements of an academic program.

Qualified Student with a Disability is a student with a disability who meets the academic and technical standards required for admission or participation in the College’s educational program or activity.
